CREAM TEA AT STONESFIELD METHODIST CHURCH 28 July
14.00-16.00. All proceeds are to help support the Church.

A prayer from one of the children who came to Experience Pentecost:

Dear God,
Let the hungry eat.
Let the thirst drink.
Let war become peace.
Let the poor have money.
Let pain become joy.
Let the homeless have homes.
Let all be happy.
Let peace reign and suffering end.
Amen.

FRIENDS OF THE CEMETERIES

10AM FRIDAY 7 SEPTEMBER, CORN EXCHANGE

This is a new group of people (set up with the support of the Town Council) whose goal is to make the voice of those who visit our cemeteries heard, and to make the cemeteries and churchyards places of peace, reflection and remembrance. Would you like to become part of this group? We would like to meet with local celebrants to see if we can organise a memorial event at the two cemeteries. These already take place for parishioners but many other people with family graves would welcome an open invitation to an event. This is an opportunity to share experiences using the cemeteries and ideas and ideas for improving them (or in the case of Windrush continuing to build them).

(Information taken from an email from Duncan Enright)
