SHOEBOX NEWS 2018 – TEAMS4U

This year the shoebox team have started their campaign by holding several coffee mornings, the next one is Saturday 18th August and the last one will be Saturday 22nd September. These are to raise money for top up items and help towards the cost of transport. Please join us for tea or coffee and cake and meet the team.

We would like to make a special request for scarves and mitts to all the wonderful people who knit for the shoeboxes. There always seems to be a shortage of these items and some of the countries the boxes go to are very cold at night. We do have wool available in the coffee bar for shoeboxes so please take what you need.

Checking starts on 5th November and our celebration evening will be Monday 12th November starting at 6.00 p.m.

Covered boxes will be available in the coffee shop for anyone wishing to start their box now, there will also be a collection box for any other items you may wish to donate.

Thank you so much, we really value your support. The Shoebox Team.

IGNITING THE HEART: Preaching and Imagination—A Study Day for Preachers. At Carterton Methodist Church on Saturday 11 May 2019.

Kate Bruce is an RAF Chaplain with a background in teaching, researching and writing on the topic of preaching. Full details are on the noticeboard in the coffee Bar. A day not to miss! Lunch and refreshments will be provided. Please contact Andrew Maisey if you plan to attend maiseyandrew@gmail.com
